Paul Deschanel Has Resigned Presidency of French Republic

Resignation and Presidential Message Forwarded to Premier Millerand; Decision Reached on Advice of Physicians, Says Echo de Paris.

Rambouillet, France, Sept. 16.—(Associated Press)—Paul Deschanel, President of France, presented his resignation from that office to-day. The President at his residence here gave his letter of resignation and a presidential message to accompany it to Premier Millerand, who will read the documents to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies on Tuesday.

Public Life Burdensome.
Paris, Sept. 16.—President Deschanel's determination to resign the office which he announced to Premier Millerand to-day was reached on the advice of his physicians, according to The Echo de Paris.

The President reached a decision in the matter several days ago and since that time has seemed to be much relieved over the prospect of release from the burden of public life. He rambled through Rambouillet Park with his wife and children yesterday, the newspaper says, and the fact that he is soon to return to private life seems to have given him renewed hope and confidence.

The latest chapter in the life of M. Deschanel, says the newspaper, reads like an act from a Shakespearean drama. A few mornings ago he was found walking toward a lake in the park where his wife was fishing and it seemed that he was drawn toward the water by some mysterious force. He was led back to his apartments and physicians were hastily summoned, but they found no serious symptoms had made their appearance.

To Consider Successor.
Paris, Sept. 16.—The National Assembly will convene at Versailles Saturday, September 25, to consider the election of a successor to President Paul Deschanel, according to an official announcement to-day. Premier Millerand will receive the presidents of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies to-morrow to discuss the convocation date.

CANADIAN RAILWAY POLICY SIGNIFICANT

Says Wall Street Journal Commenting Upon Railway Board's Finding

New York, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Press).—The Wall Street Journal in an editorial on the Canadian railway policy declares the decision of the Government to effect increases in freight and passenger rates corresponding to those in effect in the United States is significant as it means that the Government portion of the Canadian railways is to be supported by the users thereof, rather than by the whole of the taxpayers. The move, the paper declares, is reassuring to the owners and patrons of the Canadian Pacific Railway as well as to the inhabitants of the vast territory it serves and is yet to develop, as it is an indication "that it will not have to compete with a State system of equal or greater extent, managed according to political expediency and depending on the national tax budget to make both ends meet."

"Canada is even more in need of transportation pioneering than the United States," the paper concludes. "The beneficial consequences of its prompt decision to adhere to correct first principles will be first felt within the dominion but must in time extend far beyond its borders."

MONTREAL BOARD OF TRADE SATISFIED WITH NEW FREIGHTS

Montreal, Sept. 16.—Following previous announcements, the Montreal Board of Trade yesterday, through its counsel, stated it was satisfied with the recent decision of the Railway Commission, regarding freight rate increases and declined to take any part in any appeal against such decision.

TOTAL PRODUCTION OF GOLD IN STATES

Washington, Sept. 16.—A joint report of the Mint and Geological Survey fixes the total American production of gold during the calendar year 1919 at 2,918,828 fine ounces, valued at $60,335,406; silver 56,652,445 fine ounces, valued at $6,839,525 taken at the average New York price of $1.2057 per ounce. This represents a reduction of 5,312,999 in gold and 11,127,584 in silver from the 1918 output of the mines, the report said. California led among gold producing states with an output valued at $17,385,800 and Montana among silver producers with 15,012,355 fine ounces.

NEED OF DIRECT TRADE AGENCIES

London Times Takes Up Subject of Representation in Canada

London, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Press).—The Times has a reference to correspondence which has lately passed between F. C. Wade, Agent-General for British Columbia and a number of commercial bodies on the subject of trade representation in Canada.

The matter lately has been raised again by suggestions from a firm in Vancouver that British and continental manufacturers should establish agencies there, which were met with the answers that the manufacturers intended establishing agencies in New York or other trading centres in the United States and to give such agencies the Canadian selling rights. The Vancouver firm urges that such indirect business is unfavorably affected by the rate of exchange and it adds that many buyers in Canada would like to purchase direct.

In supporting Mr. Wade to secure direct representation in Canada, Dr. Creelman, agent-general for Ontario, writes that "too many of our business men in the United Kingdom seem to think that America is all one country and that Canadian business can be well transacted from New York or Washington as from our large Canadian centres."

The desire of Canadian merchant firms to secure the representation in Canada of British and continental manufacturers, is one that can be well appreciated, adds The Times. At present no doubt Canada suffers in this matter by reason of the large population of the United States. But with the development of Canada the matter might be expected in future to adjust itself automatically. In the meantime they evidently deserve attention and the careful consideration of the department and associations to whose notice Mr. Wade has brought them.

Lithuanians Urged to Allow International Body to Settle Dispute

Riga, Sept. 16.—(Associated Press).—The Lithuanian Government received the suggestion yesterday from the Supreme Council that the fighting between Lithuania and Poland be discontinued and the dispute referred to the Executive Council of the League of Nations. No reply has been made, but it appears unlikely that the Lithuanians will consent, apparently having slight faith in the League of Nations.

LABOR CONVENTION CONTINUES DEBATE

Reduction of Delegates From Affiliated Bodies Considered at Windsor

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 16.—Discussion of a resolution submitted by Hamilton Local No. 2117, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America proposing a reduction in the number of delegates each affiliated body may send to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada was resumed when the convention met this morning. Concurrence in the resolution was recommended by the committee on constitution and law and two amendments were offered, each seeking to increase the number of delegates over that urged by the resolution.

The regular order of business was suspended during the morning session to give the delegates an opportunity of hearing John S. Davidson, fraternal delegate representing British organized labor and other fraternal delegates.

Delegate Varley of Toronto, resumed the debate on the resolution to reduce membership, taking exception to that part of it which fixed the number of delegates at least one for each Labor Council and favored leaving the constitution as it is for the present Congress at least. The Congress voted down both amendments to the resolution and also voted down the amendments, notwithstanding the recommendation of the committee that it be concurred in and the constitution as regards membership remains unchanged.

It was decided to suspend the regular order of business of the convention at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Chairman R. W. Kennedy, Niagara Falls, Ont., then presented the report of the committee on audits showing assets of $35,107.42 with no liabilities.

ELECTRICAL STRIKE IS NOW IMPROBABLE

Union Said to Be Averse To Walk Out In London

London, Sept. 16.—Belief is expressed here that electrical engineers of the city will not call a general strike on Saturday and completely tie up all surface and subway railway systems, as they threatened to do late last week. The National Joint Industrial Council has inquired into the situation and it is reported that the electrical trades union has intimated its will to withdraw the question regarding the strike at a Sheffield factory which gave rise to the controversy here. ## COMMISSION FINDS CONDITION WRETCHED AND MENACE TO MEN AND FAMILIES

Halifax, Sept. 16.—Living conditions of Nova Scotia miners with few exceptions are described as "absolutely wretched" and "a menace to themselves and their families." In a report of the Federal Royal Commission which recently considered the demands of the 12,000 miners in Eastern Canada for salary increases and which is published to-day, the report recommends a number of improvements in the housing system of the miners and also wage increases of $1 a day and a ton on all tonnage rates. ## Explosion in Heart of New York Rocked Big Skyscrapers Taking Heavy Toll of Lives

New York, Sept. 16.—(Associated Press).—A mysterious explosion, disastrous in its effect, occurred at noon to-day in Wall Street, killing more than a score of persons and injuring hundreds. Office workers were just hurrying into the street for their noonday meal when a jet of black smoke and flame rose from the centre of the world's great street of finance.

Then came a blast and a moment later scores of men, women and children were lying, blood-covered, on the pavements.

Two minutes later, nearly all the exchanges had closed. Men had turned from barter to an errand of mercy—and there was need of it. While the police toiled for hours seeking the dead and injured, trained investigators were trying in vain to determine definitely whether the explosion had occurred from a bomb dropped in front of the office of J. P. Morgan & Company, or whether an automobile dashing into a wagon loaded with explosives had taken its toll.

Bomb Plot Scouted.

Frank Francisco, one of the most able investigators of the Department of Justice, declared after arriving on the scene that in his opinion it was not a bomb plot, but a collision had been responsible for the blast which rocked skyscrapers, tore the fronts from office buildings for blocks around and scattered deadly missiles in all directions.

DYNAMITE IN STREET CAUSE OF EXPLOSION

Police Commissioner Enright So Informed By Morgan Firm of New York

New York, Sept. 16.—The cause of the explosion was dynamite in the street, Police Commissioner Enright said he had been informed by members of the Morgan firm. Mr. Enright said: "I have just had a conference with Mr. Lamont and Mr. Morgan and Mr. J. P. Morgan & Company and they say that the cause of the explosion was most assuredly dynamite in the street. On this score there could be no doubt. Mr. Lamont was not hurt at all. Mr. Morgan was slightly injured and so was young Mr. Morgan, but none of them seriously. I found that one man in the building was killed outright. His name was Joyce."

MOUNTED POLICEMAN IN BOOTLEGGER CASE

Caught Conveying Whisky Towards International Line At Trail

How Constable Harry Adair, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, stationed at Trail, caught George Bailey and succeeded in getting him convicted of an infraction of the British Columbia Prohibition Act, and how Constable Johnston, of the Provincial Police, assisted by Constable Mitchell, of the Trail City Police, eventually tracked and apprehended Mounted Constable Adair, and succeeded in obtaining a conviction against him for whisky running, is told in a graphic report of the circumstances which reached the Chief Justice's office from Chief Provincial Constable Gammon, of Nelson, this morning.

According to the narrative now in the possession of the Department, George Bailey was caught by the Mounty going out towards the U.S. boundary with two cases of the offending liquid on a horse. And by the irony of fate Constable Adair and an alleged accomplice named Sullivan, were taken in charge by the provincial official on the evening of the day on which Bailey had made his appearance before the magistrate at Trail.

EFFORTS TO BRING ABOUT COMPROMISE

Turin, Italy, Sept. 16.—Conciliation and moderation are being used by Premier Giolitti in conferences now in progress here with workmen and employers in the hope that a compromise which will satisfy both sides of the Italian metal workers' conflict may be reached. ## Settlement of Miners' Dispute in Prospect

London, Sept. 16.—Prospects for a settlement of the miners' dispute with the Government without a strike in the coal industry appeared brighter to-day. The miners' executive resumed its conferences this afternoon with Sir Robert Horne, President of the Board of Trade, for the purpose of making new proposals, and, according to newspaper reports, the miners definitely dropped their demand for a reduction in the price of coal.

The miners are now said to be seeking assurances from the Government that the price of coal shall not be increased to the consumer to make up for any increase in wages which the men may obtain.

London, Sept. 16.—Indications that the Miners' Federation have some misgivings regarding calling a strike on September 25 are found in the announcement that a full conference of delegates from every mining district in England will be held next Tuesday.

Calgary, Sept. 16.—The Calgary Herald says: "Alberta's wheat crop in 1915 was 60,000,000 bushels, valued at $50,000,000. In 1919 the yield was 24,525,000, valued at $63,249,000. The latest official estimate of this year's

PLAN IS TO DEVELOP AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Assembling Seaplanes at Government Station at Jericho Beach

Vancouver, Sept. 16.—Aerial photography will largely feature the work of the Government pilots under Major C. McLaurin, D.S.C., who will shortly be operating from the seaplane station at Jericho Beach. The Major is advertising for an experienced aerial photographer. A camera has already been secured of the L.B. type, R.A.F., and will be attached to the side of the machine when in flight beside the photographer's seat. It is proposed to photograph any area on which the Government want data and specifications. If it should be desired, a photographic map could be made of the desired locality, showing lakes, rivers, timbered stretches, burnt-out areas, etc., and by such means also knowledge could be obtained of the geographical peculiarities of stretches of country hitherto almost unknown because of their inaccessibility. The station at Jericho Beach now comprises a staff of eighteen men, also six machines. The latter are only partly assembled.

In commencing flying it will first be necessary to make a couple of test flights, and the first actual flight, as outlined by the Major, will be to Victoria and return. After that, a flight will probably be made to Kamloops, following along the Fraser and Thompson Rivers and making notes of waterways, lakes, rivers, etc., that would be available for landing places. It is possible that a long flight may be made to Prince Rupert, 600 miles, in the F-3 type seaplane, which is equipped with two 285 h.p. Rolls-Royce motors and has a cruising radius of 750 miles.

WOULD PROBE IRISH AFFAIRS

Unusual Procedure Suggested By Proprietor of American Journal

New York, Sept. 16.—Oswald Garrison Villard announced yesterday that 100 representatives of Americans had accepted the invitation of his magazine, The Nation, to constitute a non-partisan committee to sift charges of atrocities in Ireland made against one Sinn Féin, the British Government and the Sinn Féin. The announcement says the committee of 100 on Ireland, as it will be known, feels that some neutral action is necessary in order to preserve Anglo-Saxon friendship and to prevent the spread of ill-will, with the possibility of such irritation driving the United States and Great Britain into war.

The programme is not fully developed, but its sponsors suggest that the British Government, Sinn Féin and others be asked to present evidence.

The committee, it is said, will designate from its own members or outside small commissions to hear these and make "a thorough and impartial report." The committee plans to begin sessions in Washington early in October. The announcement says:

"It is understood that President de Valera is ready to appear before such a body and that Mrs. Macswiney, wife of the imprisoned Mayor of Cork, will cross the ocean for the same purpose. The English point of view will be presented equally fully. The project does not contemplate any recommendations in regard to future political relations between Great Britain and Ireland."

TURKISH FEZ IS NOW DISAPPEARING

Turks in Constantinople Will Soon Be Wearing Hats With Brims

Constantinople, Sept. 16.—With the crumbling of Turkish authority and influence, the Fez, the badge which all Turkish subjects, Christians, Jews and Turks alike, are supposed to wear, is rapidly disappearing. Although the Moslems still wear their fezzes in the streets, they no longer cling to them slavishly indoors.

Soon the Turks may be wearing hats with brims in Constantinople. Moslems in other parts of Turkey insist the Mohammedans in the capital must shed their religion long ago through their desire to imitate the infidels.

As all heads must remain covered in the mosques and it is quite impossible to touch one's forehead to a prayer rug while wearing a hat with brim, the fez is indispensable to the faithful Moslem who prays daily to Mecca. Even military and naval officers must wear visorless caps.

The fez still prevails in Anatolian cities. In fact it is unsafe for foreigners to wear a hat in many of them unless he desires to attract a crowd of hooting small boys and run the risk of starting a riot. Osman Agha, the terrorist governor of Kerasse, recently checked the tendency of non-Moslems in the city to get away from old customs.

An Armenian who had just returned from Russia walked along the main street of the little city wearing a stiff-brimmed straw hat. It was worse than wearing a straw hat on the New York Stock Exchange after the season has passed. Osman Agha grabbed the hat from the Armenian's head, slashed the crown from the rim with his sabre, jammed the crown down on the Armenian's head, hitting it a heavy blow with the sabre and warning the unfortunate chap never again to appear in Kerasse under such unholy headgear unless he wanted to go to jail.

RESPONSIBILITY PLACED FOR HUNGER STRIKING

Cork, Sept. 16.—General Sir Neville Macready, military commander in Ireland, in a telegram sent to Harold Barry, former High Sheriff of Cork, who has been active in the interest of the eleven-hunger strikers in the Cork jail, was considered by the recipient to have raised the question whether certain of the prisoners were really on a hunger strike, an imputation which the ex-sheriff in his reply indignantly repudiated.

Gen. Macready's message referred to the prisoners, Upton Reilly and John Peter Crowley, and said:

"I understand these men are now on a hunger strike, but if not they will be tried as soon as possible."

The General said he regretted that Mr. Barry would not attempt to persuade the men to abandon their course of refusing food, and declared that if any of them died of hunger the responsibility would rest largely with those who encouraged them to persist.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO GAS CONSUMERS

All consumers of gas are advised to close all air openings on their gas burners, by doing so it will greatly improve the working of their gas appliances.

The air openings generally have a sliding shutter held in place by a small screw. This screw should be loosened to allow the shutter to be closed. The air openings are placed just behind the gas taps.

In cases where no sliding shutters are attached, close the air openings with a piece of rag or other suitable material.

If the above instructions are not understood, a call should be made at our Langley Street office, where a practical demonstration of the operation will be given by the members of the Gas Company.

The speakers are to be limited to eight minutes each and the chairman will be strictly neutral. At the conclusion of the meeting the question of wet or dry is to be put to the vote. ## SHE HAD LOST HEART SAYS MRS. McDERMOT

Was So Weak For Several Months After Flu That She Could Hardly Stand Up. Says Tanlac Restored Her To Splendid Health.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was so weak I could hardly stand up, but six bottles of the medicine have built me up to where I am feeling as well as I ever did in my life," said Mrs. Margaret McDermot, of 294 Berry Street, Winnipeg.

"Two years ago I had such a bad attack of the flu that for over two months I was on the flat of my back. For months after that I was so weak that if I was long on my feet my knees would give way under me. I could hardly do a thing about the house and frequently had to lie down and rest."

"My digestion became so upset, everything I ate caused me severe pains in the pit of my stomach, and I suffered a great deal with gas. I became so thin, my clothes were all too big for me and my friends became alarmed about my condition.

"I frequently had terrible headaches and at times became so dizzy I was in danger of falling. I could get but very little sleep at night and consequently felt tired all the time. I was very discouraged and lost heart for I began to think I would never be a well woman again."

"I heard so much about Tanlac that I decided to give it a chance to see what it could do in my case, and the result certainly surprised me. The first bottle gave me a good appetite, and I soon found I could eat anything I wanted and never suffer a particle from indigestion. I have gained eight pounds in weight, and am so much stronger I can do all my housework with ease."

"I am no longer bothered with headaches or dizzy spells, and I fall asleep almost as soon as my head touches the pillow and sleep the whole night through. I wouldn't take anything in the world in exchange for the wonderful good Tanlac has done me, and I shall praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

Soak the clothes at night. Rinse them in the morning. That's all.

Not a cake soap—not a washing powder—a wonderful new cleansing soap in fine granules

Rinso is so rich and pure that it dissolves instantly in water and stirs up in a bubbly tubful of lather. So great is its cleansing power that clothes need be soaked in it but a few hours, then rinsed—and they're clean. Yet Rinso is as absolutely harmless to the clothes as pure water itself.

Get Rinso for the very next family wash. A package will do it. Not a cake soap. Not a washing powder. Something better. A new form of soap in granules. Ask your Grocer.

PROHIBITION

To the Editor.—Referring to Dr. Ernest Hall's letter touching on the Vanderbilt report, may I again point out some of the "errors and misconceptions" upon which he built his arguments, which are that if deprivation of liquor drives men to take drugs, then, if we prohibit liquor, we would also automatically abolish drugs. The arguments are disingenuous, and I am surprised that Dr. Hall should stoop to use them. The facts are entirely different.

Modern life is a hustling one, and the wear and tear, what with watching for street-cars and motors, and other strenuous efforts in our everyday life, have a tendency to affect the nerves; and while strong men may avoid it, some find it necessary to employ some stimulant to sustain the pace. Of all the stimulants available, alcoholic and malt liquors are the least injurious. This is proved by the millions who employ them without becoming drunkards and who live to be a good old age. To-day I do not think there is more than one or two in a thousand who can be said to be habitual drunkards, but the use of spirituous liquors can be said to be practically universal. To the great majority, liquor is only has no ill-effect, but it has done good, and in some cases has saved life. Take away the least harmful of stimulants and then you drive people to something else, and this is usually drugs.

As Dr. Hall founded his arguments upon wrong premises, his arguments must, to use his own words, therefore be classed as "a worthless jumble" and his conclusions wholly erroneous. As to the figures, Dr. Hall says that the figures for 1918 and 1919 and not for 1920, but he does not give the 1920 figures, as compared with previous years. Is it that he is afraid to give them?

Coming now to his letter on "personal liberty," which appeared in to-day's issue, the episode of Kipling may be interesting, but it is not convincing. There are black sheep in every fold, not excluding the prohibitionists or the church.

Prohibition is the confession of failure and the despairing cry of the social reformers, so-called and self-constituted. They have failed because they have adopted a spirit of condemnation and intolerance; they have approached those whom they seek to help in a spirit of condescension from the height of self-righteousness, and not winning sympathy and success, they get impatient and now propose to invoke the law, not caring what injuries they may do. Dr. Hall says we are our brother's keepers, and prays that we might learn to be less selfish and unsocial. So be it. I hope prohibitionists are willing to adopt the plan on equal terms.

We have seen our fathers take their regular glasses of malt or spirituous liquor every night, and when occasion requires, not only without injury, but with good effect, and they lived to good old ages. Their fathers before them did the same and also lived to good old ages. We therefore, in the light of our own experience, think that a glass of malt or spirituous liquor is good for all temperatures.

prohibitionists. We think that not only will it do good, but it might make them feel more generous to the world, and look at it in a more cheerful aspect. Now we call upon all prohibitionists to be unsocial and not to be unsocial, but to do as we ask for the good of society in general, and devote a more cheerful outlook on life. Will they do it? If not, then why should they expect us to sacrifice our rights and liberties in order to satisfy their egotism.

What we claim is this: We do not seek to interfere with your likes or dislikes or your mode of life, although in our own mind we may think you are very deficient, so why should you seek to interfere with us? If you want to help the one or two in a thousand of unfortunate, drunkards, why, we will help you, and give you that smug feeling of imagining that you are a step nearer heaven, but we demand that you leave those of us who encroach upon no one's liberty, and who do our duty as good citizens, by our families and dependents, and our neighbors, alone, to go our own way.

The whole world has been fighting for freedom, and it is a retrograde step to take away freedom. Russia, in the days of the Czar was full of spies and oppression. The organization of their army of spies and stool pigeons was a fine art, and the people were kept down by force; but once the force is broken or otherwise employed, the oppressed people rise, and we have the bloody revolution, which is not yet over. History is full of such instances, and yet our prohibitionists—tends—will learn nothing from them.

A country is best governed that is least governed. The greater the liberty the greater the contentment. It has been accepted as a sort of axiom that unrest always follows war. May this unrest not be caused by the curtailment of liberty during the war for the defence of the realm. While the war lasts people are willing to submit, recognizing the necessity; but after it is won, they chafe at it. Building up the character and education on moderation in all things as the fundamental principle of life will do a thousand times more good to create temperance than by hysterical prohibition laws.

LESS 'FLU NEXT WINTER, SAYS COMMISSIONER

New York, Sept. 16.—Only the tail-end of an influenza epidemic is expected throughout the country this year, according to Health Commissioner Copeland, who predicts that the number of cases will be less than half the number of early 1920 and the disease less than half as severe and not half so widespread.

"The history of epidemics," Dr. Copeland said, "shows that after the first and most serious visit, they recur annually with decreasing severity. We are prepared to handle it, if it comes, but advise that such ordinary precautions as have been outlined from time to time be followed by every one."

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE.

The Salvation Army, in its Home Service programme for 1920, undertakes to maintain and, where advisable and necessary, increase its service to the community. A drive for the cause will occupy all next week here.

Examination of the Salvation Army's forty-year record, since its war activities have made it a target of intensified public interest, according to a statement issued, shows this organization has made astonishing progress toward solving the problem of that public disorder which is the outgrowth of private distress. In consequence renewed calls for aid have come to the Salvation Army from throughout the country, evidencing a situation the public necessity of which must be fully met. In the face of a popular demand of such extent there is no choice but to so extend its functions as to fully meet the demand. On the other hand, the demand is one which invites the intense interest of every element of every community.

STILL INFANTS?

In view of the revelations of the Parliamentary Committees, Boards and Commissions which have been investigating excessive profits during the last few years, not to speak of the annual statements issued by the companies themselves, it surely is no compliment to the intelligence of the public to declare that Canada's manufacturing industry cannot exist without the present protective tariff. Nor is it complimentary to the manufacturers themselves. Canadian manufactured goods are exported to competitive markets to the value of more than $600,000,000 every year, the chief markets being Great Britain and the United States. Indeed, half of the total business of some important Canadian manufacturers is done in the foreign field.

In the light of these facts what is the use of trying to convince the public that these industries cannot survive on their own ground against outside competition without a high tariff wall? If Canadian goods can compete with American and British goods in the United States and Great Britain they certainly can do it in Canada under moderate tariff conditions. Take, for example, the great textile company whose enormous profits were disclosed by a Parliamentary Committee and which was operating under $4,500,000 of watered stock. Does it require a protective tariff ranging from thirty to forty per cent? The question naturally rises, if these industries which have been accumulating vast profits in the shelter of a high tariff wall are still infants, what must be their margin of profits before they may be considered to be grown up?

Nor can it be shown that labor benefits from the super-profit guaranteed by a protective tariff. The average wage of the 600,000 employees in the manufacturing industry in Canada is about $750 per year; the average wage of the employees of the extremely profitable textile employer is $583 a year. The tariff as it stands is unfair to the consumer who pays in custom taxation on articles imported into Canada $180,000,000 a year. In addition to this, he must pay, of course, at least a similar amount on Canadian goods thus protected and the price of which, of course, is increased to the amount of the duty on the imported product.

We note the attempt to bolster up the protective tariff case with the old flubdub about "annexation," and we shall expect to be told that those who advocate the reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis will be called Bolsheviks. It is hardly necessary to observe that if our political independence could be undermined by our foreign trade, especially by our trade with the United States, we would have been annexed long ago, since our trade with our neighbor is more than half of our trade with the whole world, and is constantly growing, while apart from domestic loans all our borrowing is done in New York.

One material factor in producing this condition was the action of our intensely patriotic fiscalists in increasing the tariff against British goods at the same time the Germans were trying to cut off British trade with their submarines. This virtually wiped out the British preference and naturally gave the Americans a big advantage in the Canadian market. The advocates of a moderate tariff desire the restoration of the preference to British goods; in fact they ask that imports from the Old Country be given a fifty per cent. advantage over goods from foreign countries—and they are dubbed unpatriotic! We fear waving the flag is going to prove a most pathetic failure as an argument for high protection when the harassed consumer gets his next chance at this issue.

FEARING THE TREATY

In an editorial criticism of the decision of France and Belgium to preserve secrecy regarding the military agreement concluded between the two countries The London Daily News regrets that the authority of the League of Nations should be tested in this regard. It is obvious, of course, that by adopting an attitude of this sort the two signatories to the pact are contributing to the ridicule to the covenant, and it is to be hoped, as The News points out, that both France and Belgium will yet refrain from presenting the League with a challenge it could not ignore. It will take time, however, for France to abandon or alter her deep-rooted suspicion of her natural enemy. She will continue to look upon Germany in the light of an aggressor, waiting only until she can recuperate from the blow from which she is now suffering to strike again. But France is merely adding to that risk when she seeks to perpetuate the old style of secret diplomacy and intrigue from which most of Europe's troubles have sprung.

MORE CONCILIATORY

Before the British miners go out on strike another conference of all the delegates from every mining district in Great Britain will take place and Sir Robert Horne will be asked to receive another delegation. This decision was reached after a lengthy session of the Executive of the Miners' Federation in London yesterday.

There is more significance in this return to a less arbitrary frame of mind than may appear on the surface. Since the issuance of the strike notices, which set the walkout for September 25, it has developed that members of the Federation have failed to take the customary procedure with the result that there seems to be only a very lukewarm support to the general strike plan. In this attitude it may be supposed that the thousands of miners who voted against the strike call will maintain their objection by appropriate action in the event of no settlement being reached before the appointed day. Added to this moderate display of defiance within the ranks of the Federation's membership itself is the obvious lack of support from a large number of Trades Union leaders.

The attitude of the Government has shown no signs of wavering. Upon the question of nationalization Mr. Lloyd George remains firm in his decision that only the electorate shall give him instructions in this connection. And while there will be no reduction in the price of coal, for the reason that the Government declares the cost of production will not permit it, it is understood that there is a willingness to discuss the miners' demand for a fifty cent per shift increase in wages. But whether the men will agree to resume negotiations on this point alone remains to be seen. In the meantime, however, a settlement may be reached without the threatened rupture to industry.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Polish representatives are on their way to Riga to conduct their peace negotiations with the Soviet delegates. They have taken their fur coats. Does it mean that they are approaching the Winter of their discontent?

Premier Giolitti has invited representatives of employers and workers to meet him at Turin for the purpose of evolving a settlement to the present national industrial crisis. Even Italy, which had made strides towards the socialization of industry during a very short space of time, has discovered that all the "gold" that comes from Moscow does not "glitter."

The London Daily Herald has made much of a suggestion—probably purely fictitious—that Capital intends to smash Trades Unionism during the coming Winter. Its object, of course, is just as obvious as the rest of its campaign. But Labor as a whole will recognize that the British Government always has accepted the principle; it has recognized it in legislation and in administration, asserting its authoritative rights only when Trades Unionism has attempted to encroach upon the functions of the Government which represents the whole of the people organized as workers or otherwise.

All debts payable by Canadian firms to German and other enemy firms at the time of the war are to be collected by the Government at the full par value of the German mark. We presume that the same process is going on in Germany and that the par value of the Canadian dollar will be recognized by German merchants. But what will be the attitude of the Canadian firm whose partners, for instance, were treated to the indignities of a prison camp? Will they pay any such debts as may be owing? We do not think.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

ONLY FOR A TIME

(From the St. John Telegraph.)
The Prime Minister appears to have ignored the question of a general election, assuming that he and his lieutenants had the right to assume a mandate which the country has never given them. The position taken by Hon. Mr. Meighen is practically that it is necessary to save the country from itself, that it is dangerous to allow the people to make their views felt through a new House of Commons. Newspeakers who uphold his point of view are asking what would replace the present administration if it were defeated. The answer is plain enough. The people would elect a new House of Commons which would truly represent the public opinion of the day, and that House would create the government the people want. As the Toronto Star puts it, "politicians may go down and out, new ones may arise; political parties may dwindle, new ones may acquire strength—but the country is all right and the people of the country have every right to make such disposition as they choose of men and parties at the polls. It is the way the democratic system works, and those who tamper with it engage in a risky business." Hon. Mr. Meighen is unwilling to give the electors an opportunity to make their views known. He and his friends propose to rule Canada without popular authority, and for a time they undoubtedly can do so. But only for a time.

WHERE IT STARTED

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
The real germ of the telephone is in the discovery of Professor Page, of Boston, that a bar of iron gives out a sound when rapidly magnetized and demagnetized. This discovery was made in 1877. In 1881, Philip Reissner, a German, invented an instrument that reproduced electrically musical tones. The first telephone to reproduce speech was invented by Alexander Graham Bell in 1876.

WHY

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
The name by which the Hebrews knew the Red Sea—the Yamm Suf, or sea of reeds—would appear to give little indication of the reason for the title which has been applied to this body of water in later years. But, as a matter of fact, two terms have a common origin.

Unlike the "Beautiful Blue Danube," which is really a dirty yellowish brown, the Red Sea is really red—the color being due to the prevalence of a minute bright red plant, a kind of sea weed. This plant is said to be so small that 25,000,000 can live and thrive within a single cubic inch of water. Therefore, instead of being mottled with red, the sea appears a solid red. A red dye, which tradition says was used hundreds of years ago, is made from this weed. Can it be the place where it is not found, the waters of the Red Sea are as blue or green as those of any other body of water.

meantime, however, nothing was seen or heard of the fugitive whose own particular vigil had been disturbed by the flashing of the electric bulb's eyes.
On the night of the seventh Provincial Constable Johnston decided to test a motor car theory of liquor transportation, and he watched all night with special attention to one driven by Sullivan, of Trail. This car was headed in the direction of Rossland, and sitting by the side of Sullivan was Royal Canadian Mounted Constable Adair in official uniform. Constable Johnston enlisted the assistance of Constable Mitchell, of the Trail City Police, chief Div. chauffeur, and the three men drove out of town on duty at the moment, and together they went to watch the Columbia River bridge over which it was known that the car must pass were its intent and object of an illegal nature.

The Match Trick.
The two officers perfected their arrangements by which each one would be made aware of the car's approach simultaneously. Mitchell posted himself at the Trail end and Johnston at the other end, and the signal by which Johnston would know that it was the "red" car was the ignition of a match by Mitchell. After the passage of a short space of time the flickering blaze of the match gave Johnston the tip that the car was within range. Adair, as occupants already had begun to cross the bridge. When the automobile came to a standstill on the gentle hint from the Provincial officer Sullivan was at the wheel, and Constable Adair was his companion. Their direction, of course, was the International Boundary, and the car contained nine cases of rye whiskey and two cases of Scotch of that ilk.
Both men were brought before the magistrate and fined $100 on their prompt pleading of guilt to the charge.
The police authorities of the locality in which the incident took place are conducting vigorous investigations in order to discover the source of whiskey supply, the major portion of which is alleged to be making its way, through the operations of a ring on this side, to the United States.

EXPLOSION IN HEART OF NEW YORK ROCKED BIG SKYSCRAPERS. TAKING HEAVY TOLL OF LIVES

A wrecked automobile bearing a New Jersey license was found near the Morgan building and the police tried to establish whether this was the machine which had figured so prominently in versions of the disaster.
Seventeen victims of the explosion were taken out of the sidewalk of the Morgan building at 12.25.
Underneath the wrecked automobile was found a New Jersey chauffeur's license issued in the name of Jerome H. McKee, of 1497 Nelson Avenue, Bronx.
Bodies on Sidewalk.
At 12.40 fourteen bodies were seen lying on the sidewalk, and ten others were reported to have been taken away by volunteer workers.
An emergency call was sent to Governor's Island, from which a heavy detachment was sent to New York to guard the sub-treasury and aid the police.
United States regulars from Governor's Island arrived on the scene at 12.50 for guard duty.
At 1.05 doubt was cast on the accident theory when members of the bomb squad hastened to the scene expressed the opinion that a bomb had exploded. They added that fragments of metal picked up on the street were being examined on the theory that they may have been bits of an infernal machine.
At 1.15 p. m. the police estimated the number of injured at 200.
Business at Standstill.
The Morgan building was closed at a standstill this afternoon, owing to the absence of brokers, who were ascertaining the damage to their offices. The advisability of closing the Exchange was under consideration.
The unofficial estimate of dead at 120 was thirty.
According to Charles Matthews, of Brooklyn, a salesman of typewriter specialties, four persons, one a woman, were killed while working in the last department of J. P. Morgan & Company.
Matthews said he was passing the office of Mr. Lamont when the explosion occurred. Mr. Lamont, he said, was dictating a letter at the time and apparently was unhurt.
All hospitals near the financial district were crowded with injured, and physicians were summoned from all over the city.

Scene of Demolition.
The financial district, after the explosion, presented a scene of demolition.
In addition to the bodies of human beings and homes scattered over the pavement, great blotches of blood appeared on the white walls of Wall Street's office buildings. Almost every pane of glass in the vicinity was shattered, and besides a mantle of broken crystal the streets were covered with fragments of brick and stone blasted from the base walls of the skyscrapers. Several persons were hurt in these office buildings when missiles hurtled through windows.
The front of the Morgan building was demolished and the Sub-Treasury also was badly damaged.
Mayor Hylan arrived at the scene at 1 p. m. to direct the efforts of municipal agencies.
The reported license number of the wrecked automobile was that of Dunham Beeson, 171 South Third Street, South Orange. Beeson is manager of a pharmacy in New York.
It was said in Newark that Beeson had left his pharmacy this morning to go to an office in Wall Street.

Showered With Glass.
Junius Spencer Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan, and a member of the first said that he was showered with broken glass, but was not hurt. When the explosion occurred, he said, he was sitting in his office on the first floor of the building, while other members of the firm were at a meeting on an upper floor.
To check up on the story that a powder wagon was struck by an automobile, agents of the Department of Justice asked E. L. Dupont de Nemours & Co. for a detailed report on the location of all their wagons at the time of the explosion.
Officials of the company asserted they were not carrying explosives to points in the vicinity where excavations are being made.
Several construction men expressed firm belief that the wreck was that of a powder wagon.

Conflicting Stories.
It was reported that shortly before noon an automobile with two men drew up in front of the Morgan office. One of the men, Morgan detected, alighted and either accidentally or purposely dropped what appeared to be a bomb.
Occupants of a skyscraper looking down on Wall Street told another version of the story. They declared they had seen the car draw up and the men leave it. These speculators advanced the theory that the bomb, if it was a bomb—had been timed.
This version differed from the first, as regards the two passengers and the fact that the first story had it that they were among the dead or injured.
The police were inclined to the theory that the explosion had been caused by a collision of a T. N. T. truck and an automobile on Wall Street, between the Morgan office and the sub-treasury building.
They pointed to the fact that a demolished truck was found at this point near the wrecked automobile. The authorities switched their theory from T. N. T. to the fact that there appeared no great hole in the pavement, such as would have been blasted by the downward force of dynamite.
So far as the explosion was concerned, prominent financiers or members of the Stock Exchange were injured in the explosion. Thomas W. Lamont and Henry P. Davidson, members of the firm, were in the Morgan offices at the time but were not hurt.

Investigation.
Washington, Sept. 16.—Federal authorities will make an investigation of the explosion to-day in New York, the city authorities announced to-day. J. Flynn, chief of the Bureau of Investigation, was expected to leave for New York during the day.

SETTLEMENT OF MINERS' DISPUTE IN PROSPECT

representatives, it is stated. Deceptive action for calling a strike of miners was taken following the Government's refusal to grant an increase in wages amounting to two shillings a shift and reduce the price of coal by fourteen shillings and two pence a ton. The Government is understood to be willing to consider the question of wages but refuse the demand for a reduction in the price of coal.
It is pointed out that the profits for the last three months do not justify miners' estimate of sixty million pounds sterling for the whole year, and it is declared that to reduce prices would wipe out what profit is anticipated.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1920.
(Copyright, 1920, by The McClure Newspaper-Syndicate.)
Astrologers read this as rather an unfavorable day, for Neptune is in evil place, while the Sun and Mercury are adverse.
It is a time for cultivating the logical trend of the mind, since the planetary location is supposed to be exceptionally easy during the sinister way of Neptune. Then specious arguments and absolute misrepresentation become as truth to many minds.
This is not supposed to be a lucky day for those who start on journeys that have for their aim either personal gain or financial aggrandizement.
There is a sign read as forecasting agitation over the inadequacy of public revenues, owing to some new drain on the people's funds.
Persons in positions that are conspicuous, either because of good luck or of real worth, will be able under unfavorable leading of the stars. All who have places in the Sun are liable to be the target for peculiar slanders. Women should be especially careful.
Many months ago astrologers predicted that peace had not been attained in the world and they now forecast outbreaks in countries not hitherto disturbed. Spain may pass through a very serious crisis.
There is a persistent sign read as pre-aging the bitterest dissensions among legislators, whether they belong to the Labor or to the Conservative.
Many deaths among women and children are indicated. There will be a continuation of the planetary rule supposed to encourage crimes against the weak and defenceless.
Great changes in fashions are forecasted. A return to saner standards of dress is prophesied.
The Middle Ages comes under a government of the stars that should greatly benefit railways. There will be also new enterprises of a novel nature.
Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of a quiet and successful year. Women should seek to organize their daily activities.
Children born on this day may lack initiative, even though they are talented. They should be encouraged to develop all their possibilities.

SOLDIER LABOR COUNCIL TO ADMIT ONE BIG UNION

Trades and Labor Council
Endorses Move For Harmonizing Interests

Admission of the One Big Union to the Soldier-Labor Council was approved of last night by the Victoria Trades and Labor Council. There will now be six organizations in the Soldier-Labor Council: Trades and Labor Council, One Big Union, Metal Trades Council, Comrades of the Great War, G. W. V. A. and G. A. U. V.

"The One Big Union delegates would simply be coming to express the views of those they represent," said Secretary E. S. Woodward.

"If there is anything to be gained against regarding the One Big Union that the Soldier-Labor Council is interested in, it can be better handled if the One Big Union is represented on the council than if it were outside," said Christian Sivertz. "The objects of the Soldier-Labor Council are that they seek to conserve the interests of all workers and for that reason they seek co-operation with all the different organizations."

Common Interests.
The proposal to admit the One Big Union was brought up by a communication from the Soldier-Labor Council, containing a resolution passed by that body recommending that One Big Union delegates be admitted.

"This Ex-Service and Labor Council is considered to be equally representative of the various ex-service and labor organizations represented," stated the Soldier-Labor Council in a resolution sent to the Trades and Labor Council.

"The interests of many ex-service and labor men are concerned in the welfare of the One Big Union."

"Therefore be it resolved that this council of delegates do immediately take action with a view to obtain representation on this council of the Victoria general workers' unit of the One Big Union, and thereby avoiding any act of discrimination."

After this was passed it was decided to refer the matter to each of the organizations represented on the Ex-Service and Labor Council.

Aims At Co-operation.
Secretary Woodward explained that the Soldier-Labor Council is seeking to harmonize the interests of all labor and soldier bodies in the city.

"It simply represents organizations," he said. "It aims to secure co-operation so that there will be no playing off one group against the other."

Discussion of payment of the initiation fee of $10 a month and monthly fee of $5 was postponed until the next meeting.

LABOR TO AID GAS STRIKERS

Trades Council Endorses Their Position Although
They Are Not Union Body

The position of the gas workers now on strike in Victoria was endorsed last night by the Trades and Labor Council, although the gas workers are not a properly organized union and do not belong to the Council.

At the same time the Council decided to offer its good offices to bring about a settlement of the dispute between the men and the Victoria Gas Company.

"The gas workers are not at present organized or affiliated with this Council," said E. S. Woodward, secretary of the Council. "But I am in hopes that some progress will be made in the direction of them becoming affiliated with us."

"At present they are very much concerned with the strike, and they are not overburdened with funds."

"The only question in dispute is the rate that is to be paid for Sunday work. Both sides have accepted the decision of the Board of Arbitration as to week-day work."

"But for Sunday the Board offered time and one-eighth pay and the workers will not accept less than time and one-half. They are doing particularly arduous work and it is claimed that no man can last more than ten years at it."

"I think we should throw in our whole influence to help the gas workers. Their demands for Sunday work pay affect only eight workers who are employed on that day and it means less than $15 a week in increased pay. That seems a trivial matter for a great corporation."

"The men did not bind themselves to accept the award of the Board of Arbitration," he said.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

Thursday, September 16. To-day the lapis-lazuli occupies the unique position of being both talismanic and a natal gem. As a talismanic it is best used at this season of the year as a cure for intermittent fever. According to the great physicians of ancient times malaria patients were made free of the disease by wearing lapis-lazuli on their left arms. For those who are born on some anniversary of this day the lapis-lazuli promises happy and care-free lives. It is believed that melancholy or morbid thoughts are driven out by the presence of this gem. Those who wear this gem will never be distressed by groundless worries or vain regrets. Yellow is the prescribed color for to-day. The Romans believed that it was the sacred hue which attracted happiness. In a woman's gown it is believed to emphasize youth. Goldenrod is a significant flower on this date. It is believed to bring about realization of social ambitions and it also attracts influential friends. Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

Social Person

Of interest to their many friends on Vancouver Island was the marriage of Miss Muriel A. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Dempsey, Brown, 702 East Denny Way, Seattle, to Harold Francis Langham, the ceremony taking place last Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother. Miss Brown, trained for some time as a nurse at the Vancouver General Hospital and later at Chemunus. The groom, formerly associated with The Province, was a member of the Royal Air Force. The bride was charmingly dressed in ivory satin and lace and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Her sisters, Mrs. James Russell of Vancouver, and Mrs. V. McGregor of Seattle, were bridesmaids; while Miss Ellen Bringle acted as maid of honor. Miss Irene Mosher sang "Mavis" and "I Love You Truly." The bride's brother, Captain J. H. Major Harold Brown, D.C.M., of the 25th Battalion, supported the groom. After the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. Marvin, a buffet supper was served. Mrs. Annie Dempsey of Vancouver, cut the cake. The happy young couple spent a short honeymoon in this city, leaving on Monday to take up their residence in Wenatchee.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday evening at Broadbush, 1155 First Street, the minister's residence, when the Rev. Dr. Campbell celebrated the marriage of George Severs and Mrs. Frances Cadina, both of this city. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Huddellors of 2119 Albina Street. Mr. and Mrs. Severs will reside in Victoria on their return from a honeymoon trip.

PHOEBE.

Phoebe, quaintest and most charming of names, was first in use among women of Greek birth in the Roman empire. It is derived from Phoebus, the sun god, Apollo, and signifies sunny temperament, warm-hearted.

According to Greek mythology, the original Phoebe was the daughter of Gaia. According to a tradition adopted by Aeschylus, she bequeathed the Delphic oracle to Apollo, son of her daughter Leto. Poetic license calls the moon personified "Phoebe." "Phoebe our sister," the deaemoness of Genchrea, was commemorated by Saint Paul in the Romans; but she has few namesakes except in England, where she typifies the quaint, old-fashioned type so popular with British writers and poets.

The Italian Fede refers only to the moon and is rarely used as a proper name. It was in reference to the noble qualities of the Roman goddess of the moon that Spenser named his lovely Belphebe, as he also called his other warlike heroine, Bellerophon, an individual who later became identified with Artemis, the moon goddess. Artemis, of course, is the Italian Diana, and Diana is the sister of Apollo, so the relationship, seemingly so perplexing and interwoven, is really logical.

In England, Phoebe was a favorite name for rural maidens, and the poets bestowed it upon the simple rustic characters to whom they wrote odes and roundelays. Phoebe's virtues are exemplified in "The Runaway." "Her Homespun dress in simple neatness lies. And for no glaring equipage she sighs. Her reputation which is all her boast, In a malicious visit ne'er was lost; No midnight masquerade her beauty wears; And health, not paint, the fading bloom reveals." Crowell is Phoebe's talismanic jewel. It's clear translucent beauty is believed to intensify the purity and virtue of its wearer. To dream of it signifies true friends. Monday is Phoebe's lucky day and 7 her fortunate number.

Will Return to Vancouver Island Next Spring to Build: Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Junior

MUSICAL CLUB'S WINTER PROGRAMME

To Hold Concerts in Afternoon Instead of Evening; Outside Talent

A return to pre-war conditions in the Ladies' Musical Club was presented at the meeting of the committee when plans were made for the coming season's work. The decision to return to the former plan of holding the monthly recitals in the afternoon instead of the evening should meet with the approval of the membership. War conditions necessitated the alteration of this custom to the evening programmes, but unfortunately the venture was not supported by the public in a degree to make the concerts a financial success. If future the concerts will be held on the afternoons of the third Wednesday in each month, commencing with October, and the private dining rooms of the Empress Hotel, will be engaged for the purpose.

The programmes for the year will be as follows:

October, representative modern composers; November, French music; December, oratorio; and Christmas music; January, Oriental music; February, Chamber music and Scandinavian composers; March, Old Italian; April, Mozart, Haydn and Beethoven; May, Romance in music.

The committee do not intend to confine themselves to local talent for these concerts, and leading artists from Seattle, Vancouver and other neighboring cities will be invited from time to time in order to broaden the interest. It has been decided that active members of the club be asked to play or sing before a select committee in order that the programme committee will be enabled to better grade the artists for concert work, and thus ensure a higher standard. Concerts will be open to members and to their friends on display of a guest ticket.

The customary students' recital will be eliminated, and in its place there will be an additional concert by junior members of the club under sixteen years of age. The monthly Saturday musicals will be continued at the houses of members as before, these affairs having proved exceedingly popular.

TO RETIRE HERE.

George Bolton, who has been farming a section of land near Saskatoon, has reached Victoria with the intention of retiring.

Mr. Bolton's story ranks among the many romantic histories of pioneers of the prairies. Following the Northwest Rebellion, in which he fought with the Canadian militia, he took his discharge at Regina. At that time he had but $1.50 in his pocket. Recently he sold his section of land, 640 acres, at an average price of $80 an acre. His equipment and stock at auction brought him $27,000. Now, at 52 years of age, he is retiring with more than $75,000 from the sale of his farm and equipment.

Mr. Bolton attributes his success to hard work, and he still claims that the prairie offer the best opportunities to young men of to-day.

Interest in sailors who carried on trade during the war and defending the coasts and ships on the seas is waning, the Rev. H. T. Archbold said at the Seamen's Institute meeting at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. W. D. Spence, who has worked among sailors in London said that their food is poor, their quarters poorer still and yet their spirit is indomitable. "They are the hardest working and the best behaved fellows to be found anywhere," he said. "Three hundred thousand seamen enlisted during the war and 15,000 lost their lives, leaving 40,000 dependents to strive for themselves as the Government does not guarantee a pension in these cases."

Rev. Mr. Spence urged more people in Victoria to come to the aid of the Seamen's Institute as during the months the sailor is aboard ship he is severed from home life, home influence and when he goes ashore many miles from his home port he knows no one. This is where the British and Foreign Society home comes in to aid him.

Rev. Mr. Spence urged that 500 Victorians enlist to support the Institute here.

Mrs. Thompson, president of the Institute, and Mrs. Higcock also spoke.

BOYS' WORK PLANS LAUNCHED BY LOCAL ROTARIANS TO-DAY

Business Men to Advise Fatherless Boys on Most Suitable Life Work

A comprehensive programme of boys' work was inaugurated by the Rotary Club at its luncheon to-day after Rotarians had listened with great interest to addresses upon boys' work by several experts.

The first step in the Club's programme really was undertaken some time ago when a special committee of Rotarians made a census of all Victoria boys who are without fathers. This census is now complete, the names of some 150 fatherless boys having been secured. To-day each member of the Club was given the name and address of one boy, and it will be his duty to visit the lad and see what the Club can do to assist him. The Rotarians will make detailed reports concerning the boys to the Club, which will then be in a position to deal with individual cases. Later on it is planned to stage a "Find Yourself" campaign in the course of which Rotarians will advise boys concerning a suitable business or career for them to enter. It is thought that the mature experience of leading business men will be of inestimable service to boys who have no fathers to guide them and who, without advice, might drift about and in the end enter an occupation unsuited to them.

The plans of the club were based on a report which Dr. M. Raynor's Boys' Work Committee brought in, and which was described by the doctor. Dr. Raynor stated that when the Rotarians had had an opportunity of visiting and consulting with the boys allotted to them further plans for the boys' betterment would be made.

A Great Opportunity.

A remarkably fine address on boys' work and the necessity for training Canadian lads in the right way was delivered by Harold Cross, Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in the boys' department, at which the luncheon was held. Mr. Cross declared that as the problems which faced the world at present in the end would have to be placed on younger shoulders than those of the present generation it was essential that the boys of the country be fitted to bear them. Indeed, he felt that the training of the country's youth was the biggest job in the world.

Going on to describe the Canadian standard Efficiency Training, Mr. Cross pointed out that the efficiency test was originated in Canada and had been copied in many places of the world. Its purpose, he stated, was to produce "all-round" boys, to develop them physically, intellectually, socially and spiritually, and in this it was proving remarkably successful.

Van McMillan, a High School boy, who is taking the efficiency training, told the Rotarians some of the advantages which it had afforded him and his friends.

Naval Brigade Work.

Rotarian George Bushby, one of the most energetic of Boys' Naval Brigade workers, introduced to the Club Herbert Johnson one of the Brigade lads who is about to go to sea on board the Canadian Winner. Mr. Bushby appealed to the Rotarians to support the Brigade in its effort to produce seamen of the highest character both physically and intellectually.

Major Ney, who is in charge of the Canadian National Council of Education, was described to the Club to-day by Major Ney, Secretary of that body. He stated that the survey of Canadian text books which the Council had undertaken as a result of the big Winnipeg Educational Conference last year had been started and that probably the experts who were making the survey would be in a position to make recommendations in the course of the next eight months. Arrangements were being made for a conference of provincial deputy ministers of education and education superintendents in Quebec for the purpose of forming a national bureau of education which would act as a clearing house for the educational system of the different provinces. Another project which the Council was undertaking, he said, was the creation of a national university for the people of Canada.

JUDGMENT IN SOUTH VANCOUVER ACTION

Supplementing the announcement yesterday of the decision of the Court of Appeal in the Cotworth-Gillespie case, the written judgment has now been handed down. Mr. Cotworth wanted to get some data on the state of affairs in the municipality of South Vancouver, as it had become insolvent and management taken over by the Government with Commissioner Gillespie in charge. The Commissioner refused to let Mr. Cotworth look at any of the records.

Chief Justice Macdonald, who wrote the decision of the Court of Appeal, which was concurred in by all except Mr. Justice Martin, who was reserved on a couple of points, declares that the ratepayers have no statutory rights to look into municipal accounts himself. The judges point out that the public has auditors to give out all the information that should be given out.

"The Legislature, while safeguarding the interests of ratepayers and municipalities by providing for a duly authorized inspection audits and even compulsory audits and by public inquiries into the conduct of municipal business, and in the case of its Commissioner by ample control of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council over him, defined his duties in the matter of production for inspection of his books, documents and contracts, and neither directly nor by implication has the duty been imposed upon him to open his books and exhibit to the public and documents to gratify his curiosity," states the Chief Justice.

"The question to be decided in this appeal is not one of common law. It is the statutory right, if any, of a ratepayer to demand from the Commissioner the production of his books and documents when the ratepayer has no direct interest in them."

"It was argued that the by-laws at least ought to have been produced. It appears these were duly filed in the office of the County Court as required by law, and were open to inspection by the respondents. Mandamus is an extraordinary remedy, and ought not to be applied unless there is a real necessity therefor."

"Moreover, I do not decide, it being unnecessary to do so, that the Commissioner is bound in the matter of production by the provisions of the Municipal Act."

"The selections of the Municipal Act touching upon the corporation's duty in respect of the production of its books and documents are inferentially not in favor of respondent's demand, but against it, section 379 and following and section 475."

Eighty-two war vessels are shortly to be sold in England, including two light cruisers.

OFFERS SERVICES TO END GAS STRIKE

Trades and Labor Council Sets Out Attitude In Formal Resolution

The attitude of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council towards the gas workers' strike here, was formally set out to-day in a resolution that was prepared following the decision at last night's meeting of the Council.

"This Council learns with regret that an industrial conflict has been precipitated in the plant of the Victoria Gas Company by reason of the refusal of the firm to recognize the principle of time and a half for work on Sundays and holidays," says the Trades and Labor Council resolution.

"This Council is emphatically of the opinion that the men are wholly justified in the struggle they are making to secure terms which are well nigh universally enjoyed by the general body of industrial workers. Be it further resolved that this Council, in the general interest, calls upon the Victoria Gas Company to withdraw from an impossible position and that in the interests of industrial peace, the Council offers its services to the disputants in an attempt to bring the strike to an end."

CITY TAX SALE SCHEDULES ARE SOON TO BE OUT

As the date advances for the issuance of schedules in connection with the city tax sale, interest in this event, which will take place on October 5 and succeeding days, is increasing.

The two classes of property which will be offered for sale are enumerated in the advertisement now running in The Times, and should be examined by those who are delinquent for the year 1916 and previous years.

SILENCE SHROUDS PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD'S COUNCIL

The Council of the Board of Trade was in session this morning, but the proceedings were held in camera, in accordance with a resolution passed at the last meeting.

With a pleasant smile, President J. L. Beckwith told the representatives of The Times of the intention to enforce the ban against publicity. Speaking from the chair he said, "The meeting is confined to members of the Council, that being the decision arrived at at the last meeting."

As The Times representative was inclined to challenge the changed attitude, Mr. Beckwith said, "The meeting is private. Council meetings are not open to the public now."

The meeting was somewhat late in starting for lack of a quorum, there being at the time President Beckwith issued his dictum but a limited number of members present.

Washington, Sept. 18.—In a move of the James River, in Virginia, thirty-five miles from the Atlantic, 100 wooden ships that form part of the bridge across the Atlantic by the Shipping Board, are securely moored and gun-decked, and the ships are being floated at piers in busy cost represents a saving to the American people of approximately $250,000, or $3,360,000 a year.

Rear Admiral W. S. Benson, Chairman of the United States Shipping Board, is responsible for the tremendous saving. When Congress authorized the building of the ships should dispose of all the ships under its control, these 100 were not in use and were tied up in the wharves or Government piers.

Each one of these ships while at piers was costing about $250 a month. Knowing of the cost of the ships, Benson, the Shipping Board, issued an order directing the ships to be moved to the piers. 100 ships to-day are costing $250 each a month.

The cabin cruiser Uster, formerly owned by J. A. O'Neil Hayes, Inc., was purchased by the U. S. Department of the Provincial Government. It was learned to-day, that the craft is one of the best known of the Hawaiian Islands. The Uster is 35 feet in length and fitted with a 25-40 Loew-Victor engine.

The S. S. Governor arrived at 10 o'clock this afternoon from the south with a full list of passengers and some freight for this port, and will sail as usual on Saturday evening for San Francisco.

Transportation officials along the waterfront to-day join in expressing sympathy for the late Senator McArthur, dock and freight agent of the G. T. F. Wharf, in his recent bereavement.

The Government tender, Estevan, expected to clear to-day for a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, will connect with the lighthouse stations there. The Estevan will be away several days on the work.

The bargentine Alta is to be completed by to-night at Messrs. Tarro's yard, and will be towed around to the G. T. F. Wharf to be loaded.

VITAL GAMES IN MAJORS TO-DAY

Brooklyn and Cincinnati Clash; Feverish Race in American League

New York, Sept. 16.—The eyes of the baseball world turned toward Ebbetts Field to-day, where Brooklyn and Cincinnati clash in the first of a series of three games that will have an important bearing on the outcome of the pennant race in the National League.

Brooklyn, now leading the league by a comfortable margin, has twelve more games to play. If the Superbas break even in these contests they will finish the season with ninety victories and sixty-four defeats. Cincinnati, the runners-up, to lose out Brooklyn under these conditions, would have to capture fifteen of its nineteen games, while the Giants would have to win fifteen out of the seventeen games.

The fluctuating, feverish race for first honors in the American League also held the close attention of fans. New York, leading slightly, has thirteen more games to play, Cleveland has seventeen and Chicago fourteen.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—A three-game

RUTH CANNOT STOP MOVIES USING HIS PICTURE FILMS

New York, Sept. 16.—(Associated Press)—Supreme Court Justice Guy yesterday denied the application of George H. Ruth, better known as "Babe" Ruth, star of the New York American League baseball team, for a permanent injunction on restraining the Educational Film Corporation and others from displaying the moving picture entitled "Babe" Ruth, How He Makes His Home Runs.

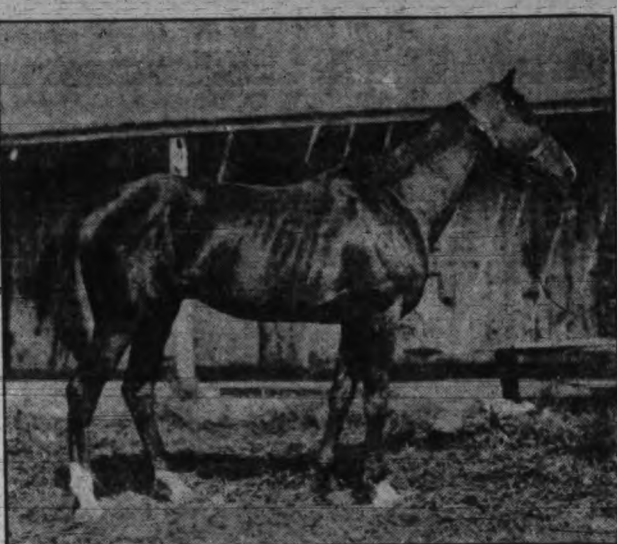

Justice Guy cites a recent decision that the use of a person's picture as a matter of current news could not be restrained.

series that may play a big part in deciding the American League pennant race opened here to-day when the Chicago White Sox meet the New York Yankees. In addition to "Babe" Ruth, New York's champion home-run hitter, was seeking a chance to knock out his fiftieth circuit drive.

Big crowds were expected by baseball men at each of the games because of the double attraction. The White Sox entered to-day's contest with a record of only eight games won out of the last nineteen played. Dick Kerr, left-hander, was slated to pitch for Chicago against Jack Quinn.

A brass band of fifty pieces accompanied Ruth. The band is from St. Mary's Industrial School at Baltimore, where Ruth spent several years.

CONSISTENT PERFORMER IN ALMOST ANY KIND OF GOING

Bassano Boy, one of the few Canadian bred horses racing in the West, has proved himself to be a very consistent performer in any kind of going and able to hold his own against a large percentage of the American bred ponies which displayed their speed on the Lower Mainland. He won two Derby races in Alberta before coming to the Coast and also got down in front the final day of the Vancouver meeting. Bassano Boy was not eligible for the Vancouver classic, as this race was confined exclusively to three-year-olds and conducted along the lines of the famous Old Country event. The Alberta events were open to horses of all ages. This fine looking thoroughbred will be shipped to Victoria the latter part of this week, and will be seen in action at The Willows, where the rain spoiled the closing event which ended in a draw.

RUGBY PROSPECTS PRONOUNCED GOOD

George Jay Is Re-elected President of Rugby
Union

Enthusiasm and optimism regarding the forthcoming rugby season marked the meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union last night when election of officers took place and plans for the opening games discussed.

George Jay, who presided over the meeting, was unanimously re-elected president of the Union. The election of vice-presidents was postponed until the next meeting. Harry Bowd was elected secretary, treasurer, and Messrs. J. H. Gillespie, Billingham and Andy Beckton members of the selection committee.

The meeting decided that applications from teams intending to enter the Barnard Cup League must be in by September 27. It was decided also to form an intermediate league on the pre-war basis, that is with no age limit. Applications for entry into this league also must be in by September 27. The decision of the Union to fix no age limit on intermediate players probably will mean that the J. R. A. will have an intermediate team this year.

Delegates were present last night from the following clubs: Wanderers, Army and Navy Veterans, James Bay Athletic Association, Great War Veterans, the Victoria and Island Athletic Association and the University Old Boys. It is requested that any players who are not affiliated with any club, and who wish to get placed, will notify the secretary, Harry Boyd, at 540 Johnson Street, or 541 Fort Street. The regular league meeting will be held Monday evening at half past five in the G. W. V. A. hall.

CRICKET SEASON ENDS IN DRAW IN THE OLD COUNTRY

London, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Associated Press)—A brilliant cricket season came to a close yesterday with Middlesex the champion county against the rest of England at Pennington Oval. The rain spoiled the closing event which ended in a draw.

Middlesex made 318 and 192 for four wickets and the rest of England declared at 803 for five wickets. Hobbs, for the rest of England, scored 215. Hendren for Middlesex, heads the batting averages for all first-class matches with 67.44 per innings. Hobbs comes second with 53.89. Rhodes of Yorkshire has the best bowling figures of 161 wickets for 12.16 per wicket.

RUTH HAMMERS OUT TWO MORE HOMERS

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 15.—"Babe" Ruth knocked two home runs in the first part of the game here yesterday between the local American Association team and the Yankees. Ruth homered in the first and fourth innings.

CARPENTIER MUST RETURN TO FRANCE TO WELCOME BABY

New York, Sept. 16.—Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, who fights Batling, Leinsky before the International Sporting Club here on October 12, will probably return to France immediately after the fight to welcome a new citizen of France. It was announced at a luncheon here Tuesday afternoon by Carpentier himself, that a little guest is expected in the Maison Carpentier early in December, and that therefore his fight, if any, with Jack Dempsey, would have to await his third voyage to America. However, Carpentier is willing enough to return after the baby has been welcomed and take on Dempsey.

"Whether I win or whether I lose, I shall not cry," he said, and the assembled politicians, promoters, managers, boxers, and movie producers, seized the occasion for clapping their hands.

MRS. MALLORY AND MISS ZINDERSTEIN SCORE VICTORIES

All Favorites Come Through Third Round in National Tournament

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, New York, former national champion, and Miss Marion Zinderstein, Boston, scored victories in the third round of the singles tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club yesterday.

Mrs. Mallory eliminated Mrs. Helen Baker, the Pacific Coast star, in straight sets, 6-0, 6-4, while Miss Zinderstein disposed of Mrs. Rawson Wood, New York, with the loss of only one game, score 6-1, 6-0.

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—All the favorites came through the third round of the women's national tennis tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club yesterday, and at the end of the day's play Boston had four representatives left, New York three and California one. Miss Zinderstein, California, was the only one forced to extend herself. Miss Molly Thayer gave her a hard battle until she lost her ankle at the beginning of the second set.

The California girl carried the first set 5-1, and then by a brilliant stretch of tennis Miss Thayer won four straight games, bringing the set to five all. Twice after that, Miss Thayer needed only one point to win the set, but each time, Miss Zinderstein turned the advantage and eventually won the set after fourteen games. In the middle of the first game, of the second set, Miss Thayer turned her ankle in trying for a hard return, after which Miss Tennant had a comparatively easy time, winning the set 6-2.

Mrs. F. Mallory, former national champion, easily disposed of Miss Helen Baker, Pacific Coast champion, in straight sets. While the California player took four games in the second set, Mrs. Mallory appeared always to have the match well in hand. She won the first set at love.

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—The fourth round in the women's national tennis tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club to-day brought together some of the best players in the country. The match between Mrs. Franklin Mallory, former national champion, and Miss Eleanor Tennant, of California, was expected to be the feature of the day's contest.

NEW BODY MAY GRAB WESTERN HOCKEY STARS

Canadian Hockey Association
Considers Western Territory
Recruiting Ground

Toronto, Sept. 16.—The Canadian Hockey Association has notified President Frank Patrick of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, that it can not agree to the closing of western territory as recruiting ground for players for its league, and that it intends giving consideration to the offers of services from players west of Port Arthur as well as those in the East.

In the cases of Skinner, Meeking, Adams, Cameron, Noble, Denny and Randall, the services of these players were declared by the late Chief Justice Falconbridge to belong to the Toronto club, and all requisite steps will be taken to insure their playing there.

Hamilton, Toronto and Shamrocks, the latter two in Toronto, are the clubs constituting the C. H. A., although a fourth club will be added shortly. Many players have already signed and applications from others are being received daily. A number of well-known amateurs will also be signed, but care will be taken not to disrupt amateur teams wherever possible.

The Canadian Hockey Association is a new organization which Eddie Livingstone, formerly of the Toronto club of the N. H. L., has launched, and his threats are not taken seriously by either the P. C. H. A. or the N. H. L. These organizations have a working agreement which has two years to run and they intend to continue to work in harmony and will ignore all claims and threats made by the new eastern organization. It is stated in official circles.

KIWANIS-ROTARY GAME POSTPONED

Much to the disappointment of a great proportion of Victoria business men, the long-heralded cricket game between the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs did not take place yesterday owing to the bad weather which has made the grounds too damp for satisfactory use. The game probably will be played in the near future, however.

GARLAND NOT MEMBER OF DAVIS CUP TEAM

New York, Sept. 16.—Final official announcement of its selection of the American tennis team to participate in the Davis Cup matches in Auckland, New Zealand, in December, was made last night by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, through George T. Ade, former president and member of the Davis Cup team committee, William T. Tilden, world's singles champion, William M. Johnston, R. N. Williams II, and Samuel Hardy comprise the team.

Mr. Ade said that Charles Garland, of Pittsburg, who was a member of the American team in England, had been announced as a member of the challenge team through error.

INCOGNITO VICTORS

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—The Incognito cricket team defeated the Germantown Cricket Club's eleven in their yesterday's match to-day, by a margin of 112 runs and five wickets. Germantown scored 276 runs in two innings, having been obliged to follow on. The visitors scored 245 in their first innings yesterday, and increased that total by 143 for five wickets before the stumps were drawn to-day.

DAY AND WICKSON WIN CLUB RACES

Fierce Fight For Flumerfelt Cup Expected in Races To-night

The harbor was the scene of two good racing events last evening when the J. B. A. held its Flumerfelt Cup annual events. Wickson's crew defeated Travis' crew by two lengths in the first heat, and in the second day's four: came off top, his crew being too strong for MacLachlan's four. Day finished with a three-quarter length lead.

The final race to decide the winner of the Flumerfelt cup will be held to-night at 5 o'clock. Wickson and Day are to stage a great fight for this cup and the spectators may look forward to a good hard struggle between the two teams. Wickson's crew is the heavier, but Bill Day's lads are determined to take the trophy home with them.

Dan Sullivan acted as starter yesterday and the crews were:

First heat—

Donaldson, bow; George, 2; Christie, 3; Wickson, stroke.

Cummins, bow; Ferrabee, 2; Press,

4; Travis, stroke.

Second heat—

VANCOUVER ANXIOUS OVER BIG BALL GAME

Vancouver Elks to Come

Here Saturday For B. C.

Championship Contest

That the members of the Arnold and Quigley baseball team, of Vancouver, are somewhat anxious about their game with the local Elks on Saturday is shown by remarks that have been received from the Terrestrial City during the last couple of days. A Victorian who returned from the Mainland city yesterday states that while the weather is not the best for practice, the players are out when ever an opportunity presents itself. Owing to the daylight saving they are able to get out in the evening after which they repair to a large hall and engage in indoor baseball for an hour. These privileges are not to be obtained for the locals, but despite this they are not losing any sleep, and will go into games on Saturday at the Stadium determined to give the best they have and if they go down to defeat they will go down fighting.

Great interest is being taken in the game by the local lodge of Elks and every member is boosting for the boys to win.

It is expected that a number of Vancouver Elks will be over on Saturday to see the games, as they were greatly disappointed of being deprived of the opportunity of rooting for the players of the local lodge last week. The members of the Vancouver lodge are great fans and during the summer months staged

COLUMBIA

Admirers of William Farnum exactly have a great treat awaiting them in his newest picture, "Heart Strings," which, with the William Fox seal of perfect production, is at the Columbia Theatre to-day. From the rough, stout-hearted man of the Dunes, the brave, adventurous soldier-sailor of "Wings of the Morning," he changes to a simple, tender-hearted young musician whose whole life and whose whole heart are wrapped up in his little sister. It presents this actor in a character that should win at once the love of all who follow it through the scenes of love and devotion, of sacrifice and righteous revenge. Mr. Farnum never has appeared in a more affecting love story than in "Heart Strings." It is a story of self-sacrifice through devotion for his sister, for when fame seems within his grasp as a struggling musician, he gives up all for her. The scenes are laid in a lovely village in Quebec and in New York City. The picture, it is said, has been finely directed by J. Gordon Edwards. In the supporting company are Betty Hutton, who plays the part of the sister; Gladys Coburn, as leading woman; Paul Cassanova, Robert Cain, Rowland G.
Edwards and Kate Blanche.

VARIETY

Alice Joyce, the star of "The Sporting Duchess," which will be shown at the Variety Theatre again to-day, is an expert archer. It is one of her pastimes and she enjoys it more than golf and tennis, although she can excel her at these. While she was making her archery scenes for "The Sporting Duchess" Miss Joyce had many real matches with the various players. Percy Marmont, her leading man, became a close second in some of the tournaments staged between scenes. He had difficulty in keeping ahead of G.
Severitt, who plays the "heavy."
The star regrets that archery is not a more general sport. "It trains the eye, mind and hand," she says, "and brings body and mind into co-ordination. It is one of the most fascinating practices I have ever tried and now that I have got my company interested in archery I expect to stage some exciting tournaments during our hours of rest."

COMEDY-FARCE CREATES FUROR

"Stop Thief" Is Outstanding Success of the Stock Company Season

The story of "Stop Thief," the latest production of the Mildred Page Players, which opened to a crowded house last night at the Princess Theatre is too well known to require narration again. Suffice it to say that for the size of the theatre and the facilities at their disposal the artists made a wonderfully clever reproduction of the age-old, but ever welcome farce.

Whether it was that the artists appreciated the fact that their efforts were meeting with approbation from their audience, or by some happy selection of cast, each seemed to grow into his, or her role, and the result was a play with quick action, and yet the comedy was good, which was thoroughly enjoyable. As if in keeping with the exceptional work of the artists, last night's scene changing was accomplished with a pleasing celerity that was much appreciated.
The orchestra under Benedict Bantly contributed much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

It would be a little unfair to single out any one for particular mention from the cast of last night's performance, as all were good in the characters allotted to them. Frank Ellis, as James Clune, the much harassed bridegroom, created a fun of constant merriment that kept the house in roars of laughter; while Arthur Elton, as William Carr, made a truly wonderful parent for the bride-to-be, his habitual forgetfulness and apologetic defence to his better half being one of the most enjoyable phases of the entire performance.

Byron Alden as "Jack Doogan," a crook, who, contrary to good, whom he carried a difficult part with convincing realism and action. William Campbell, as "Mr. Jamison," a business man, acted a disagreeable role with becoming vigor and forcefulness, while his depiction was excellent. Alice Round as Mrs. Carr, mother of the bride, and Nina Guilbert as the bride, supported the main action of the piece with charming realism and vivaciousness. Mildred Page herself as "Nell," the spirited co-worker of "Jack Doogan," the crook, acted as a perfect partner in their last and most ambitious bid for wealth prior to their marriage and assumption of the "straight and narrow path."

Genevieve Berkeley, Thomas Sullivan, Phil Goodwin, Joe Lawlis, George Swales and James Dixon all filled necessary roles with an aptitude that assisted the main action of the piece in no uncertain manner. Altogether "Stop Thief" is one of the best and most convincing farces that has been enacted on the boards of the Princess Theatre for some time past. Next week the Mildred Page Players will reproduce
"The Wolf in the Sheep's Clothing," in which she obtained a role, against her parents' wishes and her success.

ROMANO

Marion Davies, who does the finest work of her career in the film version of that famous Robert W.
Chambers story, "The Fighting Chance," which began to dance almost as soon as she began to work, and her record as a dancer is almost as great as the one she holds undisputed as a beauty whose physical perfection has been internationally acclaimed by the world's greatest masters of the brush. Her first public appearance was achieved in "Chin Chin" in which she obtained a role, against her parents' wishes and her success.

MUSIC, SONG, AND DANCE PLEASE

Pantages Has Good Bill, With "Revue de Luxe" As Feature

A very entertaining exhibition of dances and music is the feature of the Revue de Luxe which is staged in the Pantages bill for this week.
The revue is not exclusively a musical act, but it includes some very entertaining musical solos, there being violin, piano and banjo solos. A very pretty toe dance was the feature of the act, also a jazz dance which was followed by a personation of a small "vampire" who, with her could be big. This part was very well done by Peggy McIntosh, who was much applauded by her audience.
Six chorus beauties who were very beautifully gowned added to the effect of the act. Lacking a story or plot it is full of comedy and music which their patrons will enjoy.

LeRue and Dure is a very artistic act which amazed the audience. By just a few handfuls of sand skillfully thrown on a frame they produce the most lovely pictures imaginable. By the method of construction of the picture much of its merit is secured.
A beautiful sunset picture was produced out of the sand, as good as it could have been done by oil paints.
Mount Fuji is one of their feature productions.

The "Elm City" Four, a quartette
from the New York Hippodrome, gave some very entertaining singing selections. It is only because of the Hippodrome closing down this Summer that the Pantages patrons are able to share in this high class act.
Mr. Coleman, with his walking dolls, caused a great deal of amusement, especially the ventriloquist act with his sleepy telegraph boy. He made this young lad sing a song which he did very cleverly. Mr.
Coleman is the inventor of these walking dolls, which number many accomplishments.

Page and Gray gave a few song selections, interspersed with jokes and recitations, under the caption of the turn "Odds and Ends of Vena-lity."

The Four Hureleys live up to what they say in being America's foremost gymnasts. Their stunts are unexcelled on the Pantages stage.

Truitt by Thirion has reached the fourth episode, and is increasing in excitement as it goes along.

For the forthcoming production of

"Charlie's Aunt" the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society has selected a particularly strong cast, most of the actors having already proved their worth before the audience.

The part of Donna Lucia d'Alva-dore is being played by Mrs. D. B.

McConnan, of whom it is sufficient to say that she is as much at home in a comedy part as she is on the concert platform. Amy and Kitty are being portrayed by the Misses Agnes

Stuart-Robertson and Macklin respectively. Both these young ladies have in past productions established themselves in popular favor (Miss

Robertson will be remembered as Sadie in "The 442") and their work in "Charlie's Aunt" will certainly earn further laurels for them.

The somewhat exacting part of Ella is being played by Miss Hay-Dring, who in this production will make her debut before a Victoria audience.

Sir Francis Chesney is played by Captain Turnbull who in the past given evidence of his versatility in such shows as "Puss in Boots," "The Mandarin," and "His Excellency,"

the part of Jack Chesney and C. R.

Dunford that of Charles Wykeham.

This last named gentleman was seen to advantage as the scallawag lawyer in Mr. Hing's play "The Fool of the Family." Mr. Spottigue, the blustering, brow-beating guardian of Amy and Kitty is played by Lieut.

Bob Webb, late sergeant of police in

"The Pirates of Penzance" and will lodge constable in "Dandy Dick," and he apparently was made for the part.

Brassett, the college "scout" is in the very capable hands of Mr. Terbett (the donkey in "Alice in Wonderland"). Much curiosity has been evinced by those who have already seen the play as to who is to take the part of Lord Fancourt Babery, but for various reasons this cannot be divulged at present. It is sufficient to say that this character is in most capable hands.

The production is under the direction of A. Legge-Willis, who has but recently returned to Victoria after concluding a professional engagement with Mr. Hutchinson's "Luck of the Navy" Company and a very finished performance is guaranteed.

It may be mentioned that it is the aim of the V. D. & O. S. to cater to the younger generation as well as to their elders, and to that end only clear, wholesome plays will be selected. "Charlie's Aunt" is a play that will be thoroughly enjoyed by every member of the family over the age of ten years.

Two performances will take place on Monday and Tuesday. The Box

Office will open at Pantages Theatre on Friday, Sept. 17 at 10 a.m.

and owner of "Frivoities" of 1920

the Royal Victoria Theatre will house,

Sept. 20 and 21, was rehearsing the young ladies' recital.

COTTON EXCHANGE FIFTY YEARS OLD

During That Period Cotton Has Sold From 5 5-16 to 43 3/4 Cents Pound

The New York Stock Exchange has just celebrated its fiftieth anniversary.

Leopold S. Bach, head of the Exchange, who acted as master of ceremonies, welcomed the guests of the Exchange, and said in part:

"When in 1876, those long-headed, far-sighted cotton merchants of this city met and determined to form the New York Cotton Exchange they builded far better even than they expected and hoped; for, after fifty years the New York Cotton Exchange occupies a position in the commercial world undreamed of at that time. We are proud, very proud, of our past and look toward the future with confidence.

During these fifty years 'King Cotton' has experienced many vicissitudes, and the prices have fluctuated at times violently. At our opening the quotation was about 18c a pound, and since then it has sold as low as 5 5-16c and as high as 43 3/4c. Starting from nowhere, trading in 'futures' appealed so strongly to the cotton trade that the transactions officially recorded grew by leaps and bounds and are still increasing.

President Bach, followed by Samuel T. Hubbard, a former President, who told many anecdotes of the membership and of his long experience as a member. There were other speakers, after which the members had a luncheon.

At the time of its inception the Exchange had an annual business of 3,000,000 bales, until to-day the crop amounts to over 16,000,000 bales and is second in value only to the cotton crop produced in the United States. The value of the cotton crop jumped from $67,526,000 in the year the war broke out to the extraordinarily large total last year of $2,303,594,000.

The Exchange began its original trading on Pearl Street in a small room 23 by 100 feet, which was soon found inadequate, and in May, 1872, it moved to a new building facing Hanover Square, now known as the India House. There it stayed thirty years. It moved to its present location at Beaver and William Streets on April 29, 1885. The Exchange's business has outgrown these quarters, and a Building Committee has under contemplation the erection of a skyscraper, with the trading floor in the nineteenth story.

MAIL POUCH THIEVES BURN $200,000 BONDS

New York-Negroes Tell Police They Feared To Sell Securities

New York, Sept. 16.—The mystery of the loss in the mail several weeks ago of registered railroad bonds worth $200,000, owned by Payne, Webster & Co. brokers, cleared up with the admission of two negroes, one of them driver of a mail truck, that they had stolen the securities from a mail pouch, and then, afraid to attempt their disposal, burned them.

The prisoners are Thaddeus Joseph Van Buren, 34, and William Starkey, twenty-five, and his brother-in-law, James Johnson, twenty-five. Johnson was driver of the mail truck. They were held in $5,000 bail each by Federal Commissioner Hitchcock for the Grand Jury.

Starkey is said to have told Detective Newman and Cornelius Brown that on July 11, Johnson drove his truck to Eighth Avenue and 26th Street and handed him a mail pouch, telling him to take it to his home. This pouch contained the brokerage firm's bonds. Starkey said: so they burned them, together with other mail.

Johnson, who had been in the employ of the Post Office Department fourteen months was arrested Aug. 12 when Post Office inspectors traced to his truck several pouches which had been fished out of a lake at New Rochelle by boy swimmers.

Starkey aroused the suspicions of the authorities by visiting his brother-in-law in the Tombs and he was arrested yesterday. Starkey said he paid him only $30 for his work.

CROW'S NEST-OUTLOOK

Labor Shortage In Coal Mines Now Twenty Per Cent.; Big Demand For Fuel

Favorable reports are available from authentic sources regarding the present operations of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company. The physical aspect of the company's properties is regarded as economically favorable. The company is able to find markets for all the coal it can produce with the present limited supply of labor. There is a considerable shortage of skilled mine labor in the western districts at the present time, estimated at probably 20 per cent.

This may be attributed to the following causes: Increased demand for both domestic and export coal suddenly being made on the district; several new mines have been opened during the last two or three years to supply these excess requirements; men leaving old mines to go to new mines, thereby causing a general shortage of labor at all mines; immigration not coming into the country to keep the growing demands for mine labor up to a desirable standard.

The company has been for some time shipping coal to different Pacific Coast points and the various consuming centres between Fernie and Winnipeg to the east, even including Winnipeg, the Toronto Globe reports. Enough material supplies to keep on operations have been secured, but at prices that are from 100 to 150 cents higher than in 1914. Contract coal miners in the Fernie district, where the company operates, are now averaging about $9.50 per day.

SAANICH SHOW

INSPECTED BY DENSE THROG

Rainy Weather Concentrated
Attendance in Cheerful
Main Building

The weather conditions prevailing yesterday caused the Saanich fair to take an unwelcome aspect, the familiar crowds strolling around the grounds being missing. While the great hall was densely filled with a cheerful gathering, who made fun over the small-like speed with which they were able to get around the exhibition tables.

Practically everyone in public life on the Saanich Peninsula was present in the hall. After opening the Exhibition Hon. S. F. Tolmie inspected the entries with many pleasant comments. Mayor Porter was well to the fore, and took a keen interest in the display, as did a number of the aldermen. Most of the members of the Saanich Council were present, as were several of the school trustees, and F. A. Pauline, M. P. P., apparently voiced the opinions of the general attendance when he remarked that the rain had proved bad for the outside exhibits, but was an educational blessing as regards the display within the main building, for it had compelled the visitors to devote more time to the sheltered exhibits, and had so done much to advertise the quality of Saanich products.

OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began to Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 Ottawa St., Hull, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. One day while lying in bed, I read about 'Fruit-a-tives,' the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it."

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."
